89% OF THE PROTEIN IS FROM ANIMAL SOURCES

Animal sources are rich in amino acids, the building blocks of protein, making them ideal ingredients to help your dog thrive, building and maintaining muscles after a hard day's work. In Diamond Pro89, 89% of the protein comes from animal sources, so your dog's food works as hard as they do.

80

80 MILLION CFU/LB PROBIOTICS GUARANTEED

Diamond Pro89 dry dog formula is formulated with K9 Strain® Probiotics, beneficial bacteria that support digestive and immune systems and help your dog maintain an active lifestyle and peak performance. K9 Strain Probiotics are developed specifically for dogs and processed under strict quality and safety standards to ensure purity. Every pound of Diamond Pro89 is guaranteed to provide 80,000,000 colony forming units (CFU) of live, active probiotic cultures.

01

BEEF IS THE #1 INGREDIENT

Real meat is the number one ingredient and it — along with other high-quality protein sources — helps your dog build strong muscles and supports healthy body function, endurance and performance.

FORTIFIED WITH AMINO ACIDS

Amino acids are essential to your high-performing dog, as they provide the building blocks for a healthy, lean body.

ANTIOXIDANTS

Guaranteed levels of selenium and vitamin E — along with naturally occurring antioxidants from ingredients like quinoa and chia seed — help support your active dog's immune system, as well as a healthy lifestyle.

OMEGA FATTY ACIDS

A superfood blend of flaxseed, quinoa and chia seed provides omega fatty acids that are essential to your dog's healthy skin, shiny coat and overall health and well-being.

GLUCOSAMINE & CHONDROITIN

Guaranteed amounts of glucosamine and chondroitin are essential for performance dogs like yours, as they help support healthy joints.

ANCIENT GRAINS

Ancient grains like grain sorghum, millet, quinoa and chia seed have been lauded for thousands of years for their high levels of fiber and protein as well as vitamins, minerals, omega fatty acids and more. Now, they're helping your dog reach their full potential.
